

VANI (Virtual Articulation Narrating Instrument)

“Raise your words not your voice. It is rain that grows flowers, not thunder!” Wise words from Rumi that Inspire.

VANI is a 10-week (45 mins) or 5-week (90 mins) one on one customised coaching program that is completely focused on women that helps you identify your true Voice & potential! It is all about dusting off the self-doubt to discover YOU! This is conceived & executed by Rashmi Shetty who is a VOICE & Vocal Presence Coach who works with your Voice and Attitude on your journey to find out who you can be. What is the best version of yourself? This exploration can make you joyous. This joy can propel you to move into exploring how best you can evolve in order to express all that you have within. When each one has a distinct voice how can a generic program work?

Keeping this in mind the design is:

- These one-on-one coaching sessions, customized for your voice to enable you to discover where your strength lies.
- VANI is also a 4-step framework that will be used as part of this 10/5 -week program.
- Assignments & recordings that we will dissect as we understand assertiveness, Tone, power of words, modulation & discover the strength of your VANI.
- If there are any changes in the agreed time there needs to be a day's prior notice other than an emergency.
- The content of coaching sessions will be completely confidential between the coachee & coach.
- Each session will last for 45 minutes max.
- Punctuality is expected & appreciated. Any delay will not be liable to call for an extension.
- Assignments mutually agreed upon should be completed by the next session.

FEEDBACK ON VANI

Preethi Guruswamy, Leadership coach, Lean In Network Leader

“Rashmi Shetty's sessions helped me with a holistic approach to find the #VoiceInMe. All the sessions were so well crafted for my need and my style, and I have continued my practice even today. I have a tracker to build new habits for productivity. Now I have VANI as part of my habits which I'm continuously enriching and advancing. She gave structure to my style and helped me to navigate looking both inward and outwards to unlock my skills effectively.

Rashmi brings warmth with her soothing voice and her unique ways helped me to build acceptance through awareness. I was appreciated at work, for thinking on my feet which keeps me motivated always. There were many things I learnt from the sessions with Rashmi and each of the techniques gave me great benefit as I put them to practice. After #VANI, the best feedback I receive is when I tell the stories to my daughter, she laughs and cries as she hears them.

If you want to find your voice, then I would recommend VANI with Rashmi Shetty!”

Gunjan Pai, Founder, Copylove | Copywriter & Branding Solutionist

"Rashmi is an absolute delight to learn from. I took her course to learn public speaking. But she took me on a whole different and deeper journey into myself. While she emphasised on discovering my inner voice, what I ended up unfolding is my inner self. From my childhood tales, to my inspirations, she helped me unravel everything that was unique and special to me. It was so beautiful to go on that journey with Rashmi, who guided me ever so gently with her sweetest smile. Thank you, Rashmi, for making me meet myself."

Nighat Fakhri, General Manager Training, General Motors, Middle East

“I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Rashmi for the incredible 10-week voice training program, which has positively impacted me in multiple aspects. Rashmi's expert sessions allowed me to delve into the many dimensions of my voice and improve it using a wide range of skills and techniques. Her encouragement and unwavering support throughout this transformative journey have imparted invaluable lessons that have contributed significantly to my personal and professional growth.”
